The official 'zine of the Miller Number Custodian Issue #22

WHAT, ANOTHER ONE OF THESE ALREADY ?

Yep! There has been enough activity to generate plenty of material for this 'zine, so I've decided to do another issue right away. The main things that have happened are as follows.

1) Randy Grigsby FINALLY sent me some materials! What I received was not as detailed as I would have liked, but at least I got something. I now know all of the numbers that were assigned, filling a gap in my records. What I didn't get was a mailing list, and alas, no treasury.
2) I mailed letters to quite a few GMs and the response was very good. I received missing game rosters, old endgames, and much more from the group that answered my requests. I know I'll never get a 100% response from the hobby, but I am very encouraged with what I did get. There were several people that really helped out, and I'd like to mention them here. They are; Jim Burgess, Fred Davis, Melinda Holley, Douglas Kent, Lee Kendter, JR, and Phil Reynolds. If everyone cooperated like this group, things would be fantastic. Thanks much to all of you!

THE STATE OF THE TREASURY

This is still in pretty bad shape, and it's getting worse. With Randy sending me no money, and my sending out a lot of mail, things aren't too good. Here's a breakdown since last issue.

Printing and mailing of A&O # 21	-$25.05
Day to day expenses (mostly postage)	- 9.38
Printing and mailing of this issue	- 28.00 (estimated)
Donations 	+ 7.60
Balance in the treasury	- 54.83 in the red!

 this does not count subs to A&O which amount to $15.00

This isn't good folks. I hope I'm in better shape by next issue. It would be appreciated if you would at least send an SSAE when requesting a number. However, I will keep plugging along as I really want the numbers restored to their proper place in the hobby.

WHAT'S IN HERE?

I've updated the gamestarts so that there are no longer any missing numbers. This is really an important step in getting this back on track. I should now only have to do the normal business of issuing new numbers, and recording endgames.

Speaking of endgames; I really want to stress to all of you that I really want a copy of any variant endgame. Too many of you ask for a number at the start of the game, but then you never send me the results when it's over. Some of the endgames in here are from years ago, but they were never officially reported, so here they are.

WHY ARE YOU GETTING THIS ?

Your sub_____ You Trade_____ You helped me out_____
Free sample_____ Last you receive unless I hear from you_____!

Subs are 75¢ an issue in the U.S. $1.50 elsewhere

Filling in the gaps...

The following are all of the missing games between Randy Grigsby's last issue of A&O (#20), and my first issue(#21). In ALL of these games Randy only supplied me with the Type of game, the GM, and the 'zine that the number was issued to. I was not given the names of the players. Any player names that I do have here were supplied by the GMs themselves who were very cooperative in aiding this project. In MANY cases I am unsure of Randy's handwriting, so if I have misspelled a name of a GM or 'zine, I apologize, but I had a difficult time interpreting what Randy wrote. If an asterix (*) appears next to a game, it means that I have no further information on that game.

That ends all of the games that Randy Grigsby had assigned numbers to that were never published in here. I wish I had more information on these, but several GM's were uncooperative and didn't answer my letters. Sources of information that I did get for the games were: Phil Reynolds, Lee Kendter, JR, Fred Hyatt, Doug Kent, Jeff Suchard, Fred Davis, and Dave McCrumb. I really want to thank all of these people for thier help. To those of you that I wrote and received no reply, boo, hiss on you!

ERRORS, CORRECTIONS, ETC.....

Lee Kendter, JR caught the following errors in last issue.

1991Agh10 should be 1991Agh11, 1991Bcb58 should be 1991Boa05
 1989LAGh09 Colonia endgame, had already been assigned a number. I falsly assigned it another when the endgame report had no number on it. It was origionally 1989Qgh.. Delete my reassignment. On page 6 the number for Atlantica III didn't show up, it was 1988ARoa01.

ORPHANED/ABANDONED GAMES.

Melinda Holley sent me the following list of games that have been orphaned for quite some time, some from 1988. I consider these games all abandoned unless someone can prove to me otherwise.

1986AHrb through 1986ANrb, Hugh Christie, GM.

1987Trb Rory Noble GM

1987Urb Michael Hopcroft GM

Lee Kendter Jr reported the following game abandoned

1989IGwc Attempted to restart, no interest.

CHANGE IN POLICY TOWARDS 7x7 GUNBOAT FINISHES!

After discussin^g this with several people I have decided to publish the results of 7x7 game finishes after all. This will take up a lot of space, but the most compelling argument was this; if the records get screwed up again, the records of these games will be lost forever. Thus, publishing them in A&O at least gives them a permanant record. It seems like somebody always has old issues of A&O !

Now, on to some "Omegas"...

This game was among the stuff Randy sent. It only had the final year stats so I'm putting them here so at least we have an endgame record.
